Dear Gentlemen:

I have some old United States money which I would like to know the value of. I am sending you the list of them described as near as I can.

Two large copper cent pieces, Fillet Head, with thirteen stars around; dated 1847 & 1854. Two fifty cent pieces, one with the Liberty seated, and thirteen stars around; dated 1854 with a short arrow on both sides of the date. The other is a Columbian Half Dollar, dated 1893.

A two cent piece - bronze with a wreath in the middle, dated 1864. A five cent piece - nickel with thirteen stars in a circle and a large figure five in the center. One very small coin dated 1853 with a six cornered star in the center. One three cent piece, Fillet Head dated 1867 & one dated 1868. One piece a little large than a ten cent piece with the bust of Franklin dated 1836. (over)

One ten cent piece, Liberty, seated, thirteen stars dated 1853 with an arrow head on both sides of the date.

One about the same only it hain't any arrow heads.

Yours truly,
Mr. Chas. F. Wilson
